

From Research Idea to Funding Application: Getting Your Grant Proposal Together

This workshop is for researchers and health professionals who want to develop and submit an NIHR research funding application.

If you want to make a strong application which has the best chance of getting your research idea funded, then this event is for you.

Preparing a good application takes time. This workshop will illustrate the application process and will help you to focus your ideas and efforts to produce a strong application.

What will you get from the day?

For those intending to develop and submit an application to NIHR, this workshop will highlight:

- Sources of funding and support for research
- The importance of a well-defined research question and how to design a study to answer it effectively
- An understanding of the practicalities of running a research study
- What funders are looking for in a submission
- Building a team of collaborators
- What to consider when costing a study
- The application process

This event is FREE of charge and lunch will be provided.

When and Where?

Wednesday 31 January 2018
Hull (venue TBC)
10.00am - 4.00pm

What do I need to do?

As this event is aimed at those wanting to develop and submit a research funding application we ask that:

- You have a clear idea of your research question
- You are prepared to discuss your idea with an RDS adviser ahead of the workshop (by phone at a pre-agreed time) if we need more information
- You are willing to undertake about 2 hours work ahead of the workshop
